DEDICATION

Dedication

We the members of the annual staff dedicate the 1963-64 yearbook to James Gonzalas, a former student of Primero High School.

Until the loss of his presence, he proved to be a sincere friend and classmate. His cheery smile and pleasant personality will long be remembered because he has a place in each of our hearts. We do not think of him as being dead but as merely being away. Our thoughts of him will linger on throughout the years.

Because I could not stop for Death,
He kindly stopped for me;
The carriage held but just ourselves
And Immortality.

Since then 'tis centuries; but each
Feels shorter than the day
I first surmised the horses' heads
Were toward eternity.

The annual staff, is proud to be able to present to you the 1963-64 annual. We have challenged ourselves into bringing to you the events of our school life.

In the coming years we hope you will turn back the pages of this annual, and recall some of your fondest memories.

We worked real hard
We did it with zest
Just to bring to you only the best.
So shed no tears, and weep no more,
Just look right here, and open the door,
To many fond memories galore.

In coming years we hope you will,
Turn these pages, fond memories fill.
Now the annual staff of P.H.S.
Wishes to you only the best.

TO THE STUDENTS OF PRIMERO

An annual serves as a record of past accomplishments. It is a book of memories. As such, it does not reflect the true temper of the nation and world of which the school is a part. Today, the world is troubled and the American democracy that we hold so dear is facing a severe test at home and abroad. Many of the values your school has tried to impart become increasingly more important.

As you take your place in the world, remember that the most vital component part of democracy is human relations--respecting the dignity and the integrity of the individual and the group.

May your future be so planned and managed that the important experiences of your life will bring you honor and satisfaction.

Sincerely Yours,

Lloyd DeHerrera
Lloyd DeHerrera

Mr. T. Espinoza,
Principal

TO THE ANNUAL STAFF

In a year of many great events, your work in the annual may seem small, but in later years we will reminisce as we flip the pages of the Primero "Bulldog."
